JURYMEN SPEND NIGHT IN CUSTODY

Other Matters Taken Up Yesterday Without Decision

After having been acquitted of harge of Burglary, Sam and Pete Tyndall, who were tried yesterday on a charge of grand larceny, will be in suspense until 9:45 this morning, when verdict in the second case will be brought in.

The jury in this case wrangled for more than six hours last evening, beonvicts or barred from re-enlistment that they had at last reached a decision, regarding the guilt or innocence of the defendants.

Judge Lewis declined to receive the verdict last night, informing the jurynen that he would not discharge them until 9:45 this morning. As the result, the jurymen were com pelled to remain all night in the courthouse, bunks having been provided for them in the courtroom. The nature of the verdict which has
